

Non-tariff measures and enforcement in UK-EU export supply chains – shellfish

Exporting seafood products from the UK (as a non-EU country) to the EU: required measures and associated enforcement operations.

Non-tariff measures, and their enforcement, are relevant at different stages of the seafood supply chain. Figure A1.1 and A1.2 (below) provide an illustration of non-tariff measures and the corresponding competent authority responsible for enforcement, for those exporting aquaculture products and those exporting wild caught seafood from the UK (as a non-EU country) to the EU: a non-exhaustive list.

For further information on this document please contact: seafish@seafish.co.uk

Figure A1.1. Non-tariff measures relating to, and responsibilities of national competent authorities (CA) involved in, the export of aquaculture products from the UK (as a non-EU country) to the EU: a non-exhaustive list.

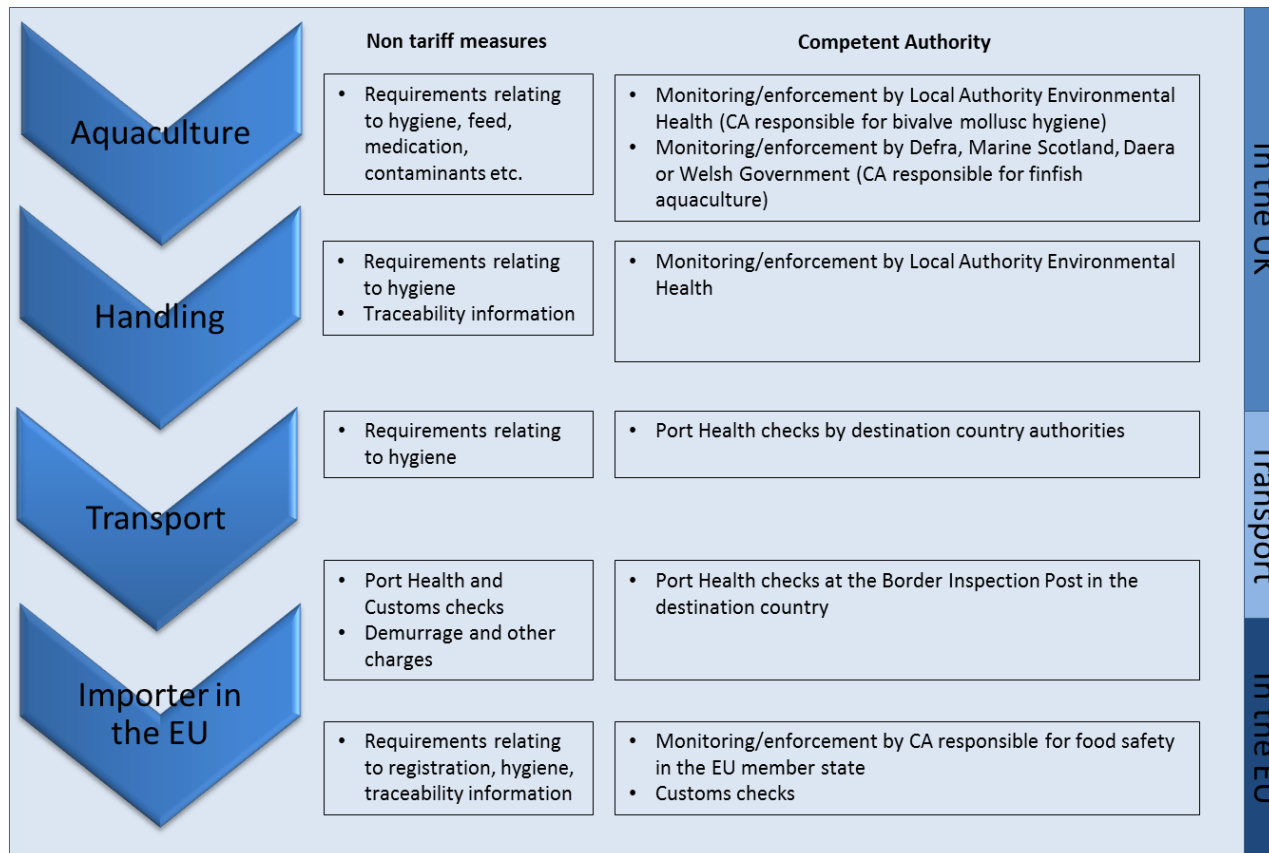

Figure A1.2. Non-tariff measures relating to, and responsibilities of national competent authorities (CA) involved in, the export of wild-caught seafood from the UK (as a non-EU country) to the EU: a non-exhaustive list.

